

Alternative Energy: Solar Energy: While Listening Questions

1. Alternative energy means all types of energy that do not use _____.
2. Give one example where wind energy was used in the past.

3. Why do people not prefer wind energy near homes?

4. Fill in the chart below to show the process of geothermal energy production.

5. Which parts of US produce more geothermal reservoirs? (Write one)

6. Hydropower is preferred by many people because it is a _____ and b. _____ source.
7. In which conditions, is solar energy ineffective? (Give one)

8. In addition to saving on the electricity bills, solar power increases _____.
9. If your roof does not get enough sunlight, you might consider _____ instead of installing your own panels. This will reduce the costs.
10. What is required by law in San Francisco?

11. Rising sea levels poses a threat to the city's coast and _____. This means a huge amount of money.
12. As there is an increase in installations of solar panels, today solar power forms the biggest amount of US energy production. T / F

An example of a listening material for R3

Note-taking sheet for Computers text (20mins)

Introduction
Reasons why computers are important in different fields
First Area:
Second Area: COMMUNICATION	The Internet and Email → easy communication By telephone lines + modems, computers communicate Messages through email anywhere + in a short time Compared to letters, emails faster Internet → world: global village timesaving
Third Area:
Fourth Area:

Answer the following question in 90 words.

What are two reasons why computers are important? Explain by giving examples of their use in different fields.

An example of a writing material for R2